Restore Our Hope – Rediscover Our Roots
 Director, Alan Head, pastoralanhead@aol.com, 205-428-4056

As clergy, from time to time we need our hope restored. Often this restoration comes through rediscovering our roots. We invite you to an opportunity to rediscover your Wesleyan roots and allow the Spirit to open your eyes to a present joy and future hope. Our speakers are:

- Richard Heitzenrater as the William Kellon Quick Professor of Church History and Wesley Studies at Duke Divinity School became best known for “breaking the code” of John Wesley’s personal diaries.
- S T Kimbrough, Jr. - Internationally known operatic, concert and music theater singer he is also the author and performer of Sweet Singer, a one-person drama depicting the life and work of Charles Wesley, which debuted in 1985 at Carnegie Hall in NYC.
