SPEAKER

Brenda Ladun anchors the Six O-Clock News and the Ten O-Clock News on ABC 33/40 and brings her special "Fighting For You" reports. She graduated from the University of South Florida with a degree in Mass Communications.

She has worked in Birmingham television for 14 years, winning multiple professional awards including the Associated Press Award for best anchor. Brenda has also won several community awards for her work with the underprivileged including the Grace House Christian Home for Girls, the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation and others.

In February of 2001, Brenda was diagnosed with breast cancer and underwent surgery. She has successfully completed chemotherapy. She ensures the public has access to cancer information through the Cancer Resource Center on ABC 33/40's website. Brenda is committed to keeping ABC 33/40 viewers aware of developments in the search for a cure with nightly "Cancer Facts."

Brenda is married and has three sons.
